Lauren Henney - 16

" You know what I love about being a cashier? I make my own money! I have a lot of homework and play sports so I didn't think I would have time to work, but a friend of mine on the soccer team got a part-time job last year, and she always seemed to have money to do things. I was really surprised that the drugstore near my neighborhood would hire me.

Like, I hadn't ever worked before, but they showed me how to use the cash register, which is actually pretty easy, how to stock inventory, and how to help people. And they are super nice about working around my schedule. I have money to spend now, but I am actually saving money to buy a car. "
